Other Business

Hearing No. H14-011 & H12-032- (Cert. # 1546) – In April 2015, the Arkansas State Board of Public Accountancy (Board) and Alan K. Minor (Respondent) entered into a consent order. The order required Respondent to pay an $18,500 civil penalty (to be paid over time at $1,000 per month) and to have a peer review completed. The order noted that “to be ‘completed’ the peer review must be accepted by the Arkansas Society of Certified Public Accountants Peer Review Committee” (ASCPA).

Respondent had a Peer Review completed and submitted it to ASCPA for acceptance. Respondent was notified by the ASCPA that it was the ASCPA’s opinion that the peer review was not performed in accordance to professional standards, and the peer review was not accepted.

Respondent has agreed to have a second peer review completed, according to acceptable standards. In following up, the Board was informed that the ASCPA could not complete the peer review process for Respondent because Respondent is not a member of the AICPA.

To date, Respondent has made payments totaling $18,500.

The Compliance Committee is requesting Board guidance and permission to make the following modifications to consent order H14-011 & H12-032. If one is found, to allow another state society other than the ASCPA to review and accept Mr. Minor's second peer review, or refund the final $500 penalty payment and allow Respondent to apply said monies toward an AICPA membership.

A motion was made and seconded to refund Mr. Minor $500 for the purpose of joining the AICPA to assist in completing the Board's requirements. The motion passed unanimously.
