

17 CAR § 235-510. Failure to file tax returns.

The willful failure by the licensee to file an income tax return, including his or her own, and the resulting conviction or plea of guilty or nolo contendere in connection therewith, shall be considered conduct discreditable to the public accounting profession.