DATE: 3-5-08

APPROVED BY:

Denise P. Oxley, AR Bar #84-117
Attorney for Plaintiff

BEFORE THE BOARD OF ELECTRICAL EXAMINERS
STATE OF ARKANSAS

IN RE: BILL KEELING

ORDER

On this 15th day of January, 2008, this matter comes before the Board of Electrical Examiners of the State of Arkansas. Bill Keeling failed to appear after being duly notified. Denise P. Oxley, Chief Legal Counsel, Department of Labor, represented the department. The Board makes the following Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

1. Bill Keeling, individually and doing business as J & B Guaranteed Construction, performed labor and services for the repair and remodel of a house owned by Cheryl A. Harris, located at 1809 Meadow Lane, Blytheville, Arkansas.
2. Bill Keeling personally performed electrical work on the subject house. Bill Keeling is not licensed to perform electrical work in Arkansas.
3. On June 4, 2007, the Department of Labor conducted an inspection of the subject house and found new electrical installations with twelve (12) violations of the State Electrical Code, including one (1) serious violation. Charles Covington, Chief Elevator Inspector, for the department conducted the inspection and testified before the Board regarding the nature of the violations.
4. On June 6, 2007, Bill Keeling was notified that he was to cease performing electrical work without a license and that there were violations of the State Electrical Code at the job site. The notice gave him ten (10) days to obtain the services of a licensed electrician and have the violations corrected. The notice was sent by certified mail. Bill Keeling signed for the notice on June 11, 2007.

5. On June 24, 2007, Charles Covington conducted a follow-up inspection at the subject house. No corrections had been made.

6. On July 3, 2007, the Department of Labor issued a Notice of Violation and Fine Assessment for one (1) violation of performing electrical work without a license and for twelve (12) violations of the State Electrical Code for a total civil money penalty of $ 3,750.00.

7. Bill Keeling timely appealed the fine to the Board of Electrical Examiners.

8. The hearing in this matter was continued from November 20, 2007 until January 15, 2008, at the request of Bill Keeling.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

1. Ark. Code Ann. § 17-28-304 (Repl. 2001) prohibits any person from performing electrical work in Arkansas without a license.

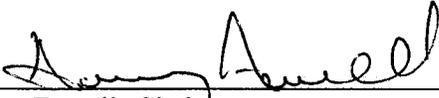

2. Ark. Code Ann. § 20-31-104 (Repl 2005) authorizes the Board of Electrical Examiners to adopt minimum standards for the performance of electrical work. The Board has adopted the National Electrical Code, 2005 edition effective October 1, 2005. Admin. Reg. 1 of the Board of Electrical Examiners (June 2006).

3. Ark. Code Ann. § 17-28-309(b) authorizes the Director of the Department of Labor to assess a civil penalty against any person, subject to appeal and hearing before the Board, for violations of Ark. Code Ann. § 17-28-304; for violations of the Arkansas Electrical Code Authority Act, Ark. Code Ann. §§ 20-31-101 et seq.; and for violations of any regulation promulgated by the Board.

4. The Board concludes that Bill Keeling violated the provisions of Ark. Code Ann. § 17-28-304 on one (1) occasion and is responsible for twelve (12) violations of the State Electrical Code as promulgated by the Board.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the civil money penalty assessed by the Director of the Department of Labor against Bill Keeling in the amount of $3,750.00 is affirmed.
