

BEFORE THE ARKANSAS BOARD OF REGISTRATION FOR PROFESSIONAL ENGINEERS AND LAND SURVEYORS

Case #2008-27, in the matter of Ken Spurlin:

COMPLAINT

The Arkansas Board of Registration for Professional Engineers and Land Surveyors (hereinafter "the Board") received a complaint on August 21, 2008, charging Kenneth J. Spurlin (PS #1023, hereinafter "Spurlin") with violating the Preamble of the Code of Professional Conduct. Specifically, Spurlin failed to supervise the behavior and actions of field personnel under his responsible charge

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Spurlin is a Professional Surveyor in Arkansas who maintains a business office in a Hot Springs strip center. The center is shared with other tenants.
2. Before and after their fieldwork, Spurlin's employees have gathered in the parking lot in front of the strip center, and harassed and intimidated at least one of Spurlin's office neighbors.
3. In his answer to the complaint, Spurlin denied any personal knowledge of the incidents, admitted that he had talked with the office neighbor about the matter, and refused to acknowledge responsibility for his employee's actions.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Upon review of the evidence in its possession, the Board finds Spurlin's actions as described in the Findings of Fact do not constitute a violation of the statutes or rules governing the Board.

ORDER

Based on these findings, the complaint against Spurlin is dismissed without further action by the Board.
